I CARE Coalition (www.hanovericare.org) is a partnership of Hanover parents, citizens, youth-serving organizations, and county agencies dedicated to helping Hanover kids grow up alcohol, tobacco, and drug-free. This community organization welcomes anyone interested in helping kids make positive choices.

Hanover's Promise (www.hanoverspromise.org) is a part of the national movement America's Promise that serves as Hanover County's clearinghouse in finding information related to youth services, resources and opportunities, as well as recognizing local businesses and organizations that are keeping the promise. For more information about the beach week program or the Promise please contact Kara Dunleavy at (804) 365-4300 or kkdunleavy@co.hanover.va.us.

HANOVER'S PROMISE THE ALLIANCE FOR YOUTH™

Hanover's Promise created this manual as a source of information about Beach Week and alternatives in effort to help parents and teens make informed decisions and create their own family strategies about post-graduation activities. Hanover County and Hanover's Promise do not sponsor or endorse Beach Week activities.

Hanover's Promise (www.hanoverspromise.org) is a part of the national America's Promise movement, and serves as Hanover County's clearinghouse in finding information related to youth services, resources and opportunities,

Have you ever wondered about an alternative beach week or spring break?

Get your taste of what a service-oriented experience could be like by volunteering during Hanover's 3rd Annual Global Youth Service Day, April 23-25, 2010.

Use your free time to make a difference in your community! Mark your calendars now and join the millions of youth helping their communities worldwide in April. This year we hope to engage at least 19,000 volunteers and make an even bigger impact of serving the Hanover community and beyond.

Join the youth service movement. As a Lead Agency, the Department of Community Resources will facilitate a countywide youth service weekend by coordinating service projects in which young people and adults alike can volunteer. You may create your own project or choose from pre-planned community projects. More info will be available on www.hanovervolunteers.org in early March.

And don't forget to attend Hanover's GYSD Kick Off on Saturday, March 27 from 12-2 p.m. @ Shady Grove UMC to sign up for projects and get your GYSD t-shirt (while supplies last)!

Teens CARE Too (TC2)

WE ARE:

Increased Community Awareness Requires Everyone = I CARE

The I CARE Coalition is dedicated to helping Hanover kids to grow up alcohol, tobacco and drug free. This is community organization that welcomes anyone interested in helping kids make positive choices. I CARE is a partnership of Hanover parents, citizens, youth-serving organizations, and county agencies dedicated to positive youth development.

I CARE meets on the 4th Tuesday of each month, 5:00 – 6:00 pm at Atlee High School. Everyone is welcome! Check out www.hanovericare.org for more information.

Teens CARE Too is the young person's contribution to the essential message "keeping teens free from drugs and alcohol."

Teens CARE Too is a teen-led, teen-driven, community group focused on the prevention of underage drinking and drug use. Youth plan and carry out awareness projects throughout the community designed to promote life without alcohol and other drugs.

Hey teens, want to be a part of Hanover's prevention efforts? Join us for our meetings at the Mechanicsville Library...

March 18 - TC2 meeting, 6:30 p.m.

April 22 - TC2 meeting, 6:30 p.m.

May 20 - Teen Summit, 6:30 p.m.

So you've decided to head to the beach to celebrate graduation? Here are some tips to think about before you hit the road. And if you're still deciding how to celebrate, this booklet also includes alternative graduation celebration ideas and resources.

HOUSE MEETINGS

- ☀ Before you go off to Beach Week, hold a "house meeting" with your fellow students renting with you. Involve parents at the meeting. Discuss behavior expectations.
- ☀ Go over the rental contract, responsibilities as renters, keeping the unit clean, safely locked, and respect for property and other vacationers.
- ☀ Keep a copy of the rental agreement in a safe spot inside the unit.
- ☀ Only housemates should have keys. Know where the keys are kept.
- ☀ Decide how to handle food and extra items before going. Will you pool your money, shop together, cook together, keep receipts in one place to divide up later?
- ☀ Decide as a group how to handle overnight guests. Are you okay with having guests of the opposite sex in the house? What if your roommate brings someone? Be frank ahead of time.
- ☀ Who's going to drive to the beach? This may depend upon how many parking spots come with the unit. How are supplies and luggage divided up for the ride?
- ☀ Think about added safety... what about a parent escort to drive the group to the beach and then another parent drive the group back home afterwards?

The 411 for Parents... KEEPING IN TOUCH with your TEEN

- ☀ Be clear and specific about your expectations. Talk candidly about the risks of drug use, drinking, alcohol poisoning, violence, sexually transmitted diseases, and sexual assault.
- ☀ Give clear no-use messages about drugs and alcohol.
- ☀ Network with and connect with other parents to confirm plans and coordinate ground rules.
- ☀ Send your teen with a group of friends and at least one adult that you have met and trust.
- ☀ Know your teen's itinerary and where he/she is staying.
- ☀ Require a daily check-in via cell phone and make sure your teen is reachable.
- ☀ Make sure to have cell phone numbers for your teen's friends and check in with them, too.
- ☀ Give your teen the option to call you during the week to ask for help or be picked up without questioning.
- ☀ Be a good listener; maintain an open and honest dialogue with your teen.
- ☀ Supervision without Invasion—Parents may consider renting a house near where teens are staying.
- ☀ Make sure the adult that signed the contract is on site. They are ultimately responsible for what happens inside and to the house.

Things you can do as a Parent

- Refuse to supply alcohol to anyone under 21
- Be at home when your teen has a party
- Make sure alcohol is not brought into your home or on your property
- Talk to other parents about not providing alcohol at teen social events
- Create alcohol-free activities in your home
- Report underage drinking to local law enforcement: 365-6140

What can happen to the underage drinker?

- Fines of $500 or more
- 50 hours of Community Service (minimum)
- License suspension of 6 months to 1 year
- Poor school performance
- Risk of alcohol abuse

Did YOU Know?

- It is against the law to give alcohol to your teen's friends under any circumstances....even if they are in your own home and even if you have their parent's permission.
- You can not knowingly allow people under 21 in your home or on your property to consume or possess alcohol.
- You can be held liable for injuries to a third party if a teenager leaves your house intoxicated and hurts someone in an accident.

What can happen to parents hosting parties where alcohol is served to minors?

- Held liable for third party damages if there is an accident
- Face up to 12 months in jail
- Fines up to $2,500

DRIVING SMART

- ☼ Consider your car insurance –do you want someone other than your child driving your vehicle?
- ☼ Consider if you are prepared to drive six hours to your destination.
- ☼ Do not ride with anyone who is/has been drinking. Have a system in place so you can call someone to get you.
- ☼ Night driving is not recommended.
- ☼ Keep your car registration and insurance information handy.
- ☼ Decide in advance who else, if anyone, may drive your car.
- ☼ Be aware of parking regulations for your house and beach area.

HAVE FUN, BE SMART

- ☼ Remember in all 50 states it is illegal to consume alcohol under the age of 21!
- ☼ Keep gatherings to small numbers and know everyone who is there. Do not announce a party in a large group or in a public place where unwanted guests might overhear.
- ☼ Attend parties where you know the people and have the ability to leave if necessary.
- ☼ Decide ahead of time what you will do if you are in a situation where there is substance or alcohol use.
- ☼ Take along information on alcohol poisoning.
- ☼ Avoid hanging on balcony railings. Every year someone is very seriously injured or killed doing this.

SAFETY

- ☼ Be sure you have your insurance card or a copy of your card (both sides). Also, have a listing of the medications you take, allergies, date of last tetanus shot, and significant medical history. If under 18, you should have written parental authorization for medical treatment.

- ☼ Place second copies of all housemates' emergency information in a folder to keep handy. (Imagine needing information concerning a housemate who is not lucid.)

- ☼ Prepare a list of emergency numbers such as the police department, hospital, and other such emergency contacts. Include phone numbers of family or friends for emergencies.

- ☼ Know the house address and phone numbers (even if you use cell phones).

- ☼ Have an emergency/safety kit containing things such as aspirin, bandages, disinfectants, cold compress, and sun block.

- ☼ Stay close to your friends. Three or more people watching out for each other are better than one. Support, protect, and take care of each other. Never allow a friend to go off alone with someone they've just met.

- ☼ Walk through different scenarios and discuss how to handle pressures, including offers of drugs or alcohol and other risky situations.

- ☼ Have a plan "B" in mind in case things get out of hand or you need to get out of an uncomfortable situation. Feel free to leave, not take part, and even to go home earlier than planned. Respect yourself and your dignity.

- ☼ Swim close to guarded areas. Undertow, riptides, and body surfing in large waves are the cause of rescues and deaths. Watch for warning flags and swimming conditions posted on beaches near life guards.

- ☼ Leave valuables at home. Lock extra money hidden in a car or other safe place.

- I will stay in _____ and not drive or be driven to another beach community/town during the week.

 - I will not host parties at the _____ beach house.

 - Only those persons in our group who have paid a share of the week's rent will spend the night at the beach house. There will be no overnight guests.

 - If something is broken or damaged, I agree that everyone will pay for it regardless of how it happened or who did it.

 - I agree to leave the house in the same condition it was in when we arrived and participate in its clean-up.

 - As a parent concerned about the health and safety of my child, I pledge that I will not provide him/her, and especially someone else's child, with alcohol, nor will I support underage drinking parties. Underage drinking can ruin a young life, and I want to be a part of a caring community that says "We do not support underage drinking!"

This sample Beach Week Pledge is a compilation of pledges/ contracts/guidelines from various resources including information from parents of Maryland's Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School students and the South Carolina Department of Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Services in effort to provide a wide range of information for teens and parents to make smart, informed decisions regarding Beach Week.

BEACH WEEK PLEDGE

I understand that _____ is the adult legally responsible for the house I am renting for Beach Week. I pledge to _____ that I will follow these rules to ensure a safe, police-free week at _____ beach house in _____.

- We will create a daily house manager rotation that will be agreed upon in advance of arrival and posted at the beach house.
- I will be a house manager one day during the week to ensure that the house is in good condition. I will be responsible for the key and locking the house when everyone is out. I will handle any problems that occur that day. "Problems" may include broken glass around the house, spills, toilet clogs or other maintenance problems.
- I will be aware of where at least one other person is during the day and at night in case of an emergency.
- We will post emergency numbers (fire, police, hospital) at the beach house.
- We will figure out a buddy system so that no one person is on the beach, in town or at a party by himself/herself.

TAKE A RISK, EXPLORE OTHER GRADUATION ADVENTURES

- ☀ How about a beach weekend instead of a whole week?
- ☀ Take a trip elsewhere with a few good friends
- ☀ Learning Adventure Vacations: experience a country's culture in-depth by taking cooking classes, learning a language, etc.
- ☀ Family cruise
- ☀ Take advantage of local attractions: rafting, tubing, rock climbing, hiking, theme parks, etc.
- ☀ Community service projects (i.e. Habitat for Humanity, Meals on Wheels, etc.)
- ☀ Mission trip with a local faith-based organization
