

Department of Public Works Fee Schedule (Effective July 1, 2011 to June 30, 2012)

Erosion and Sediment Control Inspection Fees

Single Family Dwelling (using Agreement in lieu of plan)		$150.00
Single Family Dwelling Re-inspection Fee		$50.00 per re-inspection
Single Family Dwelling or Accessory Improvements (less than 1 acre disturbance)		150.00
Land Disturbing Activity less than 10,000 s.f. (valid for six months)		$200.00
Renewal fee for each succeeding 6 month period		200.00
Land Disturbing Activity less than two month's duration		$200.00
Renewal fee for one additional 2 month period (this permit may only be renewed once)		200.00
Land Disturbing Activity 10,000 s.f. or greater (valid for twelve months)	$600.00 + $300/acre for first 10 acres, Max. $3,600.00
Renewal fee for each succeeding 6 month period		$800.00
Land Disturbing Activity 10,000 s.f. or greater associated with Single Family/Multi Family development of 5 lots or more (valid for 30 months)	$5,600 plus $600/acre, no limit to acreage ¹
Renewal fee for each succeeding 6 month period		$1,600.00

Regional Storm Water Program Fees (use allowed within Suburban Service Area only)

Single Family Residential Unit	$1,700.00 ²
Equivalent Residential Unit (5,445 square feet impervious)	$1,700.00
Per Acre Impervious	$13,600.00 ²

¹ Single Family residential units in subdivisions also pay the Single Family Residence fee of $150.00 when the building permit is applied for on individual lot.

² In single family subdivisions all impervious area not located on a lot must be paid for under the per acre impervious charge in addition to single family residential unit charge. This portion of the fee, the "subdivision Improvement" portion is due prior to plan approval. The "lot" portion of the fee is due prior to Public Works recommending approval of the subdivision plat.